

We need more morally correct stations like FCC for our community. The more we let our youth be influenced by other explicit stations the more out of control our community will become.